

As an airline employee of 18 years, I urge that cell phones NOT be allowed on aircraft. Besides the potential to cause conflict between passengers due to annoyance of loud conversations, they could conceivably be used by terrorists to coordinate activities. We've done just fine so far without them. Please don't open a Pandoras box.